

Julie Page ACII
Chief Executive Officer, Aon UK Limited

CII Deputy President nominate

Julie Page is Chief Executive Officer of Aon UK Ltd. and is responsible for the strategic management, statutory and governance oversight of the Aon UK Ltd business, delivering on the firm's global vision, financial goals and statutory and regulatory agenda.

In addition, Julie leads 1,800 colleagues in the UK who provide a range of risk, insurance and health and benefits services to clients. In her 30-plus years in the insurance broking sector Julie has developed wide-ranging experience, leading businesses and directly providing risk and insurance solutions for all segments of insurance market including consumers, commercial, corporate and global business. Julie began her career with Aon, then moved to Marsh before re-joining Aon in early 2016.

Julie is Deputy Chair for the British Insurance Brokers' Association (BIBA) and an industry champion for diversity and inclusion, with roles as committee member of Inclusion@Lloyds and former Chairman of the Dive-In Festival Committee.

Julie was a winner of the 2017 EMEA Women to Watch award.