

CII AFRICA IN NUMBERS

Chartered
Insurance
Institute
Standards. Professionalism. Trust.

As we anticipate the decade ahead, the CII has never been more positive about the Africa's prospects. There is a growing recognition of the power of a vibrant, robust insurance sector to underpin economic development and strengthen the resilience of businesses, families and individuals.

Throughout Africa we are seeing the emergence of a generation of ambitious, tech-savvy young people who recognise the value of learning in their future careers.

The CII's role in the African insurance ecosystem is to help facilitate, support and celebrate the creation of a confident profession. We appreciate the importance of being a trusted partner, and this means ensuring our learning services are relevant, our members are fully engaged, and our contributions are insightful.
